

Domestic Violence Line (24hr 7 days)

If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic violence, you can ring the Domestic Violence Line for help on 1800 656 463 (TTY 1800 671 442).

The Domestic Violence Line is a statewide free-call number and is available 24 hours, seven days a week.

The Domestic Violence Line provides telephone counselling, information and referrals for women and same-sex partners who are experiencing or have experienced domestic violence. Trained female caseworkers are sensitive to the needs of people who have experienced domestic violence.

Domestic Violence Line staff are aware of the special needs of Aboriginal women and women from other cultures, as well as those living in rural and remote areas. Interpreters and TTY can be arranged where necessary to ensure that all people, regardless of their language or disability can use the service.

The service has an extensive list of contacts, people and services across NSW who can help.

Domestic Violence Legal Advice Line

The Domestic Violence Legal Service is a specialised legal service for women experiencing domestic violence. Its main objective is to inform women of their legal rights in the area of violence towards women and to help women obtain access to justice. Domestic Violence Legal Advice Line on (02) 8745 6999 or 1800 810 784.
